Spectator Bus to Marshall, MN and Orange City, IA –

Saturday, September 19th, we head to Marshall, MN to compete in Pursuit of Excellence.

Saturday, October 10th, Orange City, IA for competition.

Because the events end late in the evening, and the drive, even though not far, but far enough after a busy day, we are organizing spectator buses to make the trip easier. In order to get the buses, we need a minimum of 40 people for each trip. (Maximum is 47.....unless you don't mind having the roadies duct tape you to the top of the bus.)

Cost:

- Marshall, MN = $22.00 per person
- Orange City, IA = $20.00 per person

Benefits:

- Don't have to find a parking spot
- You can visit with your fellow Marching Band Parent Bud
- Able to take a nap to and from the event
- You can relive your youth and pretend you are riding the bus to school....but you come home with NO HOMEWORK!

Sign Up Due Dates: (UP DATES TO DATES)

- Marshall, IA – 8/27/15
- Orange City, IA – 9/24/2015

Please let us know if you would like to ride the Spectator Buses by sending an e-mail to lincolnbandparents@gmail.com.

Include the following in your e-mail response:

1. Marshall, MN and/or Orange City, IA
2. Full name of each person riding the bus

The Roadies have been working and pondering and thinking and constructing and planning for many days and nights. They are getting close to their goal of completing the props for this years Gold Rush show!

Special Thank You to a couple of former Lincoln High School Marching Band Members

- Ross Wetrich for volunteering his welding skills
- Makayla Woledge for volunteering all your free time for building the props
