Wow!! What an amazing show!!! What a delicious meal!!!! Great turn out!

We hope you enjoyed your evening of the Chicken Dinner/Indoor Marching Show. The band certainly entertained and thrilled us once more with their last performances of this year's GOLD RUSH SHOW. So very proud of the band and color guard for all of their accomplishments this season. Our directors, Dan Carlson and Sam Anderson along with Craig Spangler, Pete Hansen and Emily Savage really guided the band, front ensemble, battery and color guard to new and greater levels of performances. The 2015 "Show" may be done, but we all know the brilliant minds of this year's show are already working coming up with the 2016 show. Waiting in anticipation for what is in store for Lincoln's Marching Band. We know it is going to be FABULOUS!!!

And now, a word from the Chicken Dinner Committee:

Thank you all so much for working so hard to help make the Lincoln Band's Chicken Dinner and Indoor Show such a wonderful event for so many people. We can't say it often enough: There is just no way to put on such an event without you! Thank you for being quick to register to help and for following through so dependably. I saw many of you working hard doing such unglamorous things as emptying trash, bussing and washing tables, running errands, wiping up spills, and (worst) folding and organizing the students' lost and found clothes (ew!). I never heard one complaint from any of you! To the contrary, your cheerful service contributed to our guests' enjoyment. Thank you for taking initiative to find out what needed to be done and then pitching in, even when your own work shift was over. The spirit of total cooperation was amazing, but not at all surprising. This was just one more example of the classiness of the Lincoln Band.

Drum roll please! We served 1,213 people on Tuesday and 1,147 people on Thursday. That's 2,360 people served in six hours! All this and more was done with the help of 145 bandparents (assuming I didn't leave anybody out). The Lincoln Bandparents are THE BEST! It was a joy to work alongside you.

Thank you with all our hearts!

*Your Chicken Dinner Committee
